

HAPPENINGS

Second Saturday live concerts return

The Arc of Crawford County, in collaboration with Meadville Neighborhood Center, is excited to host the first live music event of the summer season.

The Freshwater Jazz Project with 85% Potato will perform in The Community Greenspace, 953 Market St., Meadville, beginning at 6:30 p.m. June 8.

Those attending the free outdoor concert are encouraged to bring a picnic to enjoy with family and friends. Bench and table seating is limited, so blankets or lawn chairs are recommended. Rain location will be Meadville Council on the Arts (second floor of the Meadville Market House).

With help from community partners, a number of family-friendly events are being planned for The Community Greenspace throughout the summer and early fall, including:

- June 20: A Summer Solstice Celebration with family-friendly activities and live music by The Bright Ideas and Zach Johnson
- Aug. 10: Meadville Neighborhood Center live concert
- Sept. 14: Outdoor family movie night
- Oct. 31: Annual Halloween trunk-or-treat
- More information: Follow The Arc Crawford County on Facebook.
- To host an event at The Greenspace, open to the public daily from dawn to dusk: Contact Ashley Mattocks at mattocksrosenthal01@allegheny.edu or call The Arc (814) 724-7346.
